HYMN OF THE WEEK

God's Word is Our Great Heritage

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home or small group:

- Share about a time when you worked hard to achieve something.
- Reformation means change. Have you experienced a major change in your life? What was it like?
- Jesus says that the one who commits sin is a slave to sin. What enslaves you or keeps you from loving God and neighbor?

DEVOTIONS

Reformation Day on October 31st recognizes the day in 1517 when Martin Luther posted The 95 Theses on the door of a church in Wittenberg, Germany. These statements were written to challenge the teachings and practices of the church in Luther's day. The first thesis states, "When our Lord and Master Jesus Christ said 'Repent,' he intended that the entire life of believers should be repentance." To repent is to turn to God in faith and be set free from our sins. In Christian worship it is expressed in the corporate confession:

"For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways."

Talk about what the gift of repentance and forgiveness means to you. Then pray the above confessional prayer.

SERVICE

The Bible Society is a Christian organization whose mission is to make the Word of God available to all people in their own language. Find out more about the work of the Bible Society in your country and in other countries. Consider making a donation to support their mission of bringing the Bible to people across the world.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

In honor of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation and Martin Luther's desire for people to read the Bible in their own language, read the passages from "Daily Bible Readings", texts that were selected for their influence on the early Reformers. Begin each reading by praying the following:

Dear God, just as you opened the hearts of the Reformers, so open my heart to receive the freedom and salvation of the gospel as a gift of grace. In Jesus' name, amen.

End each reading by singing A Mighty Fortress Is Our God (or the "Hymn of the Week") and use "A Blessing to Give" found in this Taking Faith Home.
