The ELCA uses an accompaniment model for connecting the global church. Christ the King Church has been a companion congregation with the Lutheran Churches in Trujillo, Peru since 2010.

Why did we enter into a companion relationship?

Companion relationships help us to:

- Nurture and strengthen one another for life and mission within the body of Christ
- Participate in one another's lives and ministries
- Have a better perception of challenges in the global context, and call us to deepen our commitment to be true disciples of Christ
- Help us to fully understand the one holy and catholic church

How can we do this? Accompaniment

- Literally means walking together side by side
- is a mutual relationship between companion churches who walk together in God's mission
- receiving is as important as sending
- recognizing and embracing one another's gifts
- interact with one another as colleagues, as fellow workers in the vineyard of Christ

Over the last eight years our annual Peru mission offering has assisted the Lutheran congregations in the Trujillo area to provide education, meals, cultural activities, and Christian formation to children and families.

In 2016, our offering enabled one congregation to install a sewer system and plumbing.

Last year, our offering assisted with the clean-up of the San Andres Church property after record downpours caused the worst flooding to hit Peru in decades.

Through the leadership of Lay Pastor Jorge, the church in Trujillo serves in many leadership roles as we walk together to create a future with hope.

Kids meet at 9:45 a.m. on the second floor in the library area for the Kids' Summer Creation Education Series. Parents, and other interested adults, are welcome to join in the fun.

Faith in Our City: Hinduism

Faith in Our City is a program that increases awareness of the variety of faith traditions we have in our community. Interfaith Ministries spotlights a different faith tradition each month through two separate opportunities: a Lunch & Learn and a guided tour of a house of worship representative of that faith. In August their focus is on Hinduism.

Registration required for all events. Call 713-533-4900.

Summer Book Reviews

August 5: Lisa Brenskelle, Dream of the Earth, by Fr. Thomas Berry

This landmark work has established itself as a foundational volume in the ecological canon. In it, Thomas Berry, eco-theologian & Catholic priest, provides nothing less than a new intellectual-ethical framework for the human community by positing planetary well-being as the measure of all human activity.

August 12: Chuck Alexander, Immortal Diamond, by Fr. Richard Rohr

August 19: Linda Schoene, Falling Upward: A Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life, by Richard Rohr

Help Needed in our Sunday School Classes

As we start a new year of Godly Play, we are gathering people to teach and help in the classes. We have classes from toddler (2-3 years old) through the 6th grade and, like in most children's programs, we need 2 adults in the classroom for safety and to allow a smooth flow in the lesson. We are looking for older youth and adults to fill the support role in the classroom. The storyteller is an experienced Godly Play teacher who sits at the front of the room throughout the class, knows the story by heart, and can direct the conversation afterwards.

But what about the child who races into the room, carrying a handful of cookies? What about the child who is coming for the first time and doesn't know where to sit? What about a child who wants to use water colors to paint a picture about the story but doesn't know how to use them? And who will help with the snack?

Give Flowers to Celebrate or Remember a Loved One

Members and friends have the opportunity to celebrate or remember loved ones or life's milestones with the gift of the Sunday altar flowers. Open Sundays are August 12 through September 23. After worship the flowers are given to members of the congregation who either celebrate a milestone or to whom we extend a special expression of our support. Thanks to the Altar Guild members who care for the flowers and deliver them to our members. The cost for a Sunday arrangement is $65. Please sign up by calling ... or sending an email to ctk@ctkelc.org.

Montrose Grace Place

Christ the King Church volunteers will be providing and serving a meal for at-risk LGBTQ youth on Thursday, August 9 at Kindred Lutheran Church. Would you like to help with this community project? For more information or to volunteer, contact Rebecca at rshields63@gmail.com.

For support in the classroom we need

- People who can help the child put down his cookies and enter the room calmly.
- Someone who can greet a new child and put her at ease.
- People who can help someone find the materials they need to create a masterpiece.
- And we need someone to say "Will you please pass out napkins? Will you please pass out the cookies? Will you please pick up the glasses and napkins?" because everyone gets to participate in the feast.

If you can do these things for the children, we invite you to join us in our classes. Not every Sunday, but maybe every couple of weeks. In return you will greet wonderful children, hear the story, watch a child paint a picture from her heart, and help them with their feast — their communion. The Godly Play class is a sacred place where you can help children come close to God — and come a little close yourself.

Please speak with or contact our Sunday School superintendent Marie Monroe (marie4118@gmail.com), Pastor Liebster (karinliebster@ctkelc.org), or any of the Sunday school teachers. We'd love to tell you more about how it all works!

Music Programs for Children

Our Wednesday program offers music for children from early childhood (yes, even infants) through elementary school in tiered groupings to bring the best experiences for our children. All children are welcome to become part of learning and growing in faith through these groups.

Music is one of the key building blocks for a healthy and wholesome development. Please join us this fall. Our groups focus on these important areas:

- faith formation
- skills building
- songs and hymns to learn the language of the church through singing
- active participation in worship

Our music faculty is trained to meet the developmental needs of the children and enthusiastically nurtures wholesome growth and faith formation.
