CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your household or small group:

- What is temptation? Share about a time when you felt tempted.
- Jesus spent 40 days in the desert where he was tempted by the devil. What do you think it was like for Jesus to spend that time alone in the desert?
- Why is it important for us that Jesus said no to the devil's temptations?
- How did Jesus overcome the devil's temptations? How does God help us when we are tempted?

DEVOTIONS

Ash Wednesday begins the season of Lent. The weeks of Lent are a time to refocus our lives on God. One important spiritual practice that Christians emphasize during Lent is prayer. Make this Lent a time of prayer for others. Cut out 36 pieces of paper (one for each of the remaining days of Lent), and on each one write the name of a person your household can pray for during Lent. Place these into a jar and mix them up. Each day of Lent, pull out a slip from the jar and ask God to care for and bless the person named.

SERVICE

As a Lenten practice, many people choose to give up something they usually enjoy. Decide together to give up a special food item that you would normally buy each week, or to set aside the money you would usually have spent on eating out. At the end of March, use what you have saved to buy food items to donate to a community food shelf or food pantry serving the needy.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

Make a "crown of thorns" wreath to serve as a home devotional feature. Make or purchase a grapevine wreath (or equivalent) to use as the base. Insert six purple candles, one for each remaining week of Lent, and a white candle to represent Christ. Light one candle the first week, two candles for the week after, and so on. Begin Holy Week (on Palm Sunday) with all of the six purple candles lit, then extinguish one candle each night thereafter. Light the Christ candle as you celebrate Jesus' resurrection on Easter Sunday.

This week, read 1 Peter 3:18 (Scripture Verse for the Week) as you light the first candle. Then say this prayer together:

Lord Jesus, thank you for dying to free us from sin, once and for all time.
Thank you for bringing us back to God. Amen.
