

WEDNESDAYS@CHURCH

Christ the King Church comes together every week of the school year for Wednesdays@Church or W@C. All activities are centered around dinner together. There is music for children and parents, singing for children, classes and music for adults. With dinner at the center there is ample time to make and meet friends.

The Unknown Bible –

Reading Biblical Books Together

Starting October 3, the 5 O'Clock offering at Wednesdays @ Church will be reading biblical books together. Let us join and discover treasures of Old and New Testament literature by reading texts and stories in context. The first one is the book of Ruth. Pastor Liebster will lead the class in shared reading and commentary. Join us Wednesdays, 5:00 – 5:55 p.m. in the third floor conference room.

Six weeks with Mark

Through October 10, 6:30 p.m.

No birth narrative, no resurrection appearances—what sort of “good news” is that? The Gospel of Mark, the earliest and shortest of the New Testament gospels, is appointed for the current lectionary year. Mark deserves to be read as a complete narrative, a paradoxical text, and meant to be read aloud. Kristine Wallace leads this class to study Mark’s “good news.”

Love Your Neighbor

The Love Your Neighbor group convenes Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. as part of W@C. Share dinner, then join the discussion.

Family Music for Babies and Toddlers

5:45 and 6:20 p.m.

Our Family Music for Babies & Toddlers (birth to 36 months) is designed to bring the love of music and movement to babies and toddlers while laying a strong foundation for further musical skill development. Cost per child is $65/semester

NEW CLASSES STARTING OCTOBER 17

Lutheran Basics

Wednesdays, 6:30 p.m. Starting October 17

Are you interested in "becoming" a Lutheran for the first time? Do you desire to "re=become" a Lutheran? Do you just want to re-charge your Lutheran batteries...or even learn something new about the Lutheran Christian disposition? Then this class is for YOU! Starting October 17, 6:30 p.m., we'll meet for five Wednesdays (October 17, 24, November 7, 14, 28) with these five corresponding topics: 1) The Cross, Lutheranism's Theological Center; 2) Lutheran Worship, Singing and Doing the Drama of Christ; 3) The Living Word, Lutheranism and the Bible; 4) Treasures for Teaching, Lutheranism's Doctrinal Guardrails; 5) Vocation and Neighbor; Lutheranism's Liberation to Love.

The class will be taught by Pastor Duane and Deacon Rick Erickson. It is open indeed to all who are interested, including those exploring possible membership with Christ the King Church. Our non-required "textbook" will be the long-lived outstanding outline by Daniel Erlander (but let us know if you want a copy). The class will meet in the basement music suite. Questions? Raising Children to Thrive as Adults

New Class for Parents

Wednesdays, 6:30 p.m.-7:20 p.m. Starting October 17

Each generation of parents raises their children in the cultural climate of their time. The current climate combines the highest expectations for a successful life with the highest fears for safety and wellbeing. To help navigate this stressful journey Christ the King parents with children and youth of all ages are bonding together. A new reading group will study Julie Lythcott Haims' book How to Raise an Adult: Break Free of the Overparenting Trap and Prepare Your Kids for Success. The author explores how current parenting is not necessarily producing fully functioning, independent young adults. She offers analysis and ideas for building self-sufficiency in our kids. The book is relevant to parents of toddlers as well as twenty-somethings. The conversations will be led by Lucky Sahualla with an eye to practical application for each week between the meetings.
