

Bright Stars of Bethlehem
presents

THE JERUSALEM CONFERENCE

Jerusalem is key to peace in the Middle East. The recent move of the U.S. Embassy has threatened historic commitments to Jerusalem as a city for two people of three faiths, along with the hope for peace.

October 11, 9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
University of Houston, Hilton Ballroom $30/ticket

A national one-day conference featuring renowned scholars, ecumenical faith leaders and peacemakers around the topic, Jerusalem: What makes for peace? Collectively advancing the vision of an inclusive, diverse, & equitable Jerusalem.

Open to the Public Register at brightstarsbethlehem.org

SPEAKERS

- Dr. Mitri Raheb President of Bright Stars of Bethlehem & Dar al-Kalima University
- Jim Wallis President of Sojourners
- Jim Winkler President of National Council of Churches
- Rev. Dr. Mae Cannon Executive Director of Churches of Middle East Peace
- Dr. Iva Caruthers General Secretary of Samuel DeWitt Proctor Conference
- James Zogby President of Arab American Institute
- Rev. Dr. James Forbes Senior Minister Emeritus of the Riverside Church
- Dr. Bob Roberts Founding Sr. Pastor of Northwood Church & co-founder of Glocal Ventures
- Dr. Santiago Slabodsky Hofstra University

Room for Hope Palestinian Festival

Encounter the heart of a people through their culture. Join us for a celebration of Palestinian heritage in Houston & across the globe

FOOD + MUSIC + DANCE

October 11 5:00-8:00 p.m.

at St. Paul's United Methodist Church

Performances by dancers from Bethlehem, Palestine.

Live music by Georges Lammam Ensemble. $25/ticket