

Young Adults at the New St. Arnold's Cathedral

The event this Sunday is moved up to 3:30 at St. Arnold's to participate in a unique Ordination and Reformation Hymn Sing, while sharing beer with the spirit of Martin Luther. Car pool from church at three.

It is "Reformation Month"! And Reformation Sunday on October 28! What better way for the CTK Young Adults to celebrate than to join with Luther himself by way of his 95 Theses and beer (or non-alcohol) at the brand new "Cathedral" at the St. Arnold's Brewery! Yes, copies of the theses will be provided. We'll chat through a few of them. We'll sing a Reformation Hymn or two. And we'll enjoy good Lutheran style brew. Anyone who chronologically or attitudinally falls into "Young Adult" range is welcome! Talk with Pastor Duane if further questions.

Scripture & Science: What's the Connection?

Sunday, October 28, 6:00 p.m., online
Is there conflict or connection between scripture & science? If there is connection, what connection exists? Given a connection, can knowledge of science deepen faith? Consider these questions with Lisa Brenskelle, leader of the CTK Creation Care Team. Please register for this talk on eventbrite.com. Contact Lisa Brenskelle at brenskelle@aol.com with any questions about this talk.

Our congregation has enjoyed a companion relationship with the Lutheran churches in Trujillo, Peru for over a decade. As a part of our recent "faithful imagining," we were encouraged to strengthen that partnership, along with our relationship to the Iglesia Luterana Peruana (ILP). With that in mind, we are planning a trip to Lima and Trujillo for the summer of 2019. If you are interested in joining a small group of members in an exploratory and service-oriented trip, please join us for lunch at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, November 4. For more information and to RSVP for lunch, contact Pr. Larson at duanelarson@ctkelc.org or Beverly at beverlydavis@ctkelc.org.

SUNDAY FORUM

9:45 a.m. in the parish hall

October 28:

The Origins of the English Bible
Presented by Dr. Andrew Kraebel, professor of English in Medieval and Renaissance Studies at Trinity University and a member of Christ

the King Church.

The history of Bible translation tends to begin with the Reformation, but in fact a robust culture of biblical translation existed for centuries before the advent of Protestantism. What were these pre-Reformation Bible translations? Who was responsible for making them, and how were they used? How can we fit them in to our understanding of the history of the Church, and of changing views on interpretive authority? Addressing these questions, we will focus our attention in particular on fourteenth-century England, exploring the different forms and functions of English Bibles in the centuries before the invention of print.

November 4:

Social Justice and the Migration of Peoples:
An Update on Current Immigration Law Issues
Presented by Maria Mitchell, Esq.

Managing Attorney, St. Frances Cabrini Center
for Immigrant Legal Assistance, Houston

November 11: Immigration Stories: Reclaiming the Immigrant Conversation

Presented by Federico Salas-Isnardi

To create communities that welcome immigrants we need to know some basics of the most recent history of immigration in the USA. We also need to understand what the current issues are and develop some tools to help us reclaim the immigrant conversation. Learn the research-based framing strategies to counter the negative anti-immigrant narrative avoiding myths and untruths so you can to better serve, empower, and advocate for immigrants.
